Form W-4 (2017)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2017 expires February 15, 2018. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note: If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you can't claim exemption from withholding if your total income exceeds $1,050 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Exceptions. An employee may be able to claim exemption from withholding even if the employee is a dependent, if the employee:

- . Is age 65 or older,
- · Is blind, or
- Will claim adjustments to income; tax credits; or itemized deductions, on his or her tax return.

The exceptions don't apply to supplemental wages greater than $1,000,000.

Basic instructions. If you aren't exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple Jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all Jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2017. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

	nholding exemptions claimed on this certificate does not exceed the number to which I am entitled. Signed THIS FORM MAY BE REPRODUCED

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE

A. Number. If you claim more than the correct number of exemptions, civil and criminal penalties may be imposed. You may claim a smaller number of exemptions. If you do not file a certificate, your employer must withhold on the basis of no exemptions.

If you expect to owe more income tax than will be withheld, you may either claim a smaller number of exemptions or enter into an agreement with your employer to have additional amounts withheld.

You should claim the total number of exemptions to which you are entitled to prevent excessive overwithholding, unless you have a significant amount of other income.

If you work for more than one employer at the same time, you must not claim any exemptions with employers other than your principal employer.

If you are married and if your spouse is subject to withholding, each may claim a personal exemption.

B. Changes. You may file a new certificate at any time if the number of exemptions increases. You must file a new certificate within 10 days if the number of exemptions previously claimed by you decreases. For example, if during the year your dependent son's income indicates that you will not provide over half of his support for the year, you must file a new certificate.

C. Spouse. If your spouse is not working or if she or he is working but not claiming the personal exemption or the age 65 or over exemption, generally you may claim those exemptions in line 2. However, if you are planning to file separate annual tax returns, you should not claim withholding exemptions for your spouse or for any dependents that will not be claimed on your annual tax return.

If claiming a wife or husband, write "4" in line 2. Using "4" is the withholding system adjustment for the $4,400 exemption for a spouse.

D. Dependent(s). You may claim an exemption in line 3 for each individual who qualifies as a dependent under the Federal Income Tax Law. In addition, if one or more of your dependents will be under age 12 at year end, add "1" to your dependents total for line 3.

You are not allowed to claim "federal withholding deductions and adjustments" under the Massachusetts withholding system.

If you have income not subject to withholding, you are urged to have additional amounts withheld to cover your tax liability on such income. See line 5.

Information about Social Security Form SSA-1945 Statement Concerning Your Employment in a Job Not Covered by Social Security

New legislation [Section 419(c) of Public Law 108-203, the Social Security Protection Act of 2004] requires State and local government employers to provide a statement to employees hired January 1, 2005 or later in a job not covered under Social Security. The statement explains how a pension from that job could affect future Social Security benefits to which they may become entitled.

Form SSA-1945, Statement Concerning Your Employment in a Job Not Covered by Social Security, is the document that employers should use to meet the requirements of the law. The SSA-1945 explains the potential effects of two provisions in the Social Security law for workers who also receive a pension based on their work in a job not covered by Social Security. The Windfall Elimination Provision can affect the amount of a worker's Social Security retirement or disability benefit. The Government Pension Offset Provision can affect a Social Security benefit received as a spouse or an ex-spouse.

Employers must:

- Give the statement to the employee prior to the start of employment;
- Get the employee's signature on the form; and
- Submit a copy of the signed form to the pension paying agency.

Social Security will not be setting any additional guidelines for the use of this form.

Copies of the SSA-1945 are available online at the Social Security website, www.socialsecurity.gov/form1945. Paper copies can be requested by email at oplm.oswm.rqct.orders@ssa.gov or by fax at 410-965-2037. The request must include the name, complete address and telephone number of the employer. INFORMATIONAL SHEET FOR THE MANDATORY DEFERRED COMPENSATION PLAN

The Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1990 (OBRA) expanded Social Security coverage to include all state and local employees unless they are covered by the employer's retirement system. In 1991, the Treasury Department issued final regulations interpreting the new law.

Q. What is a Section 457 deferred compensation plan?

A. Deferred compensation, under Internal Revenue Code Section 457, is a tax-deferred, supplemental retirement plan. The primary benefit of your deferred compensation plan is that you pay no current federal income tax on (1) the amount withheld from your wages, and (2) the earnings credited to your account.

Q. Is participation in the deferred compensation plan mandatory?

A. Yes. Your employer will automatically deduct the required contribution from your gross salary to provide you, as a seasonal or temporary employee, with a defined contribution retirement plan instead of Social Security coverage, which is otherwise required under Internal Revenue Service Code Section 3121(b)(7)(f).

Q. Do I have a choice of funding options?

- A. No. OBRA legislation mandates that your contributions be non-forfeitable, meaning your account balance cannot experience a loss. Therefore, your contributions will be deposited into the Nationwide Group Fixed Fund Retirement Contract provided by Nationwide Life Insurance Company. This fund offers a minimum annual guaranteed rate with a current interest rate which is adjusted quarterly to keep pace with the changing economic conditions.
- Q. If my contributions are not currently taxable, do I need to make any adjustments to my tax returns each year?
- A. No. Your employer will make the necessary adjustments to your W-2 form, lowering your gross wages by the amount that you contributed in that tax year.
- Q. When will I have to pay federal income tax on my deferred compensation account?
- A. Ordinary income taxes will be payable when your deferred compensation account is paid to you. The taxes are payable on the amounts paid to you in any given year.
- Q. What are the payout options available to me when I separate from service?
- A. If your account balance is less than $5,000 at the time you stop working, you will receive a lump-sum distribution. If your account balance is $5,000 or more, you may choose either a lump-sum payout or a periodic payout.

DC-3105-0702 Massachusetts

Q. Will I have the option of designating a beneficiary on this account?

- A. No. There will be no beneficiary payments. Any account balance remaining at the time of your death will be paid as a single sum payment to your estate.
- Q. Will I receive any account statement?
- A. Yes. You will receive an annual account statement after the close of the calendar year.
- Q. Do I need to notify anyone if I change my name and/or address?
- A. Yes. In addition to notifying your payroll center, please send any changes in your name and/or address to the address listed below. Please be sure to include your Social Security number with your request and documentation supporting your name change (i.e. copy of marriage certificate, copy of court order, etc.).

Deferred Compensation Service Center OBRA P.O. Box 182797 Columbus, OH 43218

- Q. Are there any fees or charges for participating?
- A. No.
- Q. Are there any penalties at withdrawal?
- A. No. As an OBRA participant in the Nationwide Fixed Account Option, you may withdraw your funds at the time you stop working without penalties or charges, regardless of your age.
- Q. When can I withdraw my money?
- A. You may withdraw your funds when you retire or when you stop working. If you die before you receive your money, your account balance will be paid as a lump sum payment to your estate.
- Q. What if I become a full-time employee with my employer?
- A. You cannot receive a payout; rather, you would be eligible to participate in the voluntary 457 deferred compensation plan. You may transfer the value of your OBRA account to the voluntary plan.
