

A fun day with family, friends, and free activities!

The 2017 Maritime Festival will be held on Saturday, September 30, 2017 from 10am to 4pm on Children's Beach and Brant Point

The Maritime Festival, free to all who attend, celebrates Nantucket's maritime heritage. It honors our coastal community's livelihoods, and seafaring heritage.

The day's activities include:

- musicians,
- net making and repair,
- knot tying,
- basket making,
- harpoon throwing,
- heaving lines,
- fish printing,
- small boat races,
- "fish stories",
- sea shanties,
- tours of the shellfish propagation lab,
- shucking contest,
- harbor boat tours,
- wader safety demonstrations,
- public tours of the Brant Point station and boats, with the US Coast Guard, our on-the-water first responders
- the Tall Ship Lynx dockside tours and a sail
- and so very much more.

The Maritime Festival cultivates, nurtures, and inspires our community of people who live by the sea. It is Egan Maritime's mission to ensure a healthier future for Nantucket with dramatic lessons from the past, mindful respect for our waters, safety education, and maritime joy.
