

EMPLOYEE DRESS CODE

The dress and grooming of employees have an effect on the educational process of students. Creating an exemplary model for students is expected.

Every employee of the Nantucket Public Schools shall maintain a level of personal hygiene necessary to ensure an appropriate educational environment and dress in a professional manner which serves as an example for students.

Employees shall dress and groom in a manner that will not cause a health or safety hazard.

Ref.: National Education Association Code of Ethics, Principal II.